Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Improvement Era, Vol. 19: June, 1916 In their penury and distress, the first act of the Utah pioneers was to sink upon the earth; not in prayer for help, not in lamentation and despair, but in a glad Praise Service and in thanks to the Power that had led them through the waste and over the transfixed billions of the everlasting hills to a place of rest. Then their work began. They were not dreaming of fortunes. The struggle before them was to live and that struggle continued almost without abatement to the end. Often only the barest necessities were vouchsafed; few comforts, no luxuries. In that rough friction their youth was worn away; the men surrendered their ambitions, the women folded fond dreams and a thousand innocent longings in their hearts and drew the silence of self-sacrifice and self-abnegation over them forever. But then a miracle commenced. The desert began to transfer the wrinkles and the sadness from its sombre face to theirs, while in turn it began to absorb the splendor of...
