Excerpt: . . . removing the flags and protection. One like your Highness should be aloof from saying this thing, for the Consul of the Republic of France is himself watching them. As to the question regarding Ismail, we want him to be produced before us, so that we may hear his statement, and take the necessary measures in that matter. May you remain protected, and salaams. Purport of Letter from the Sultan of Muscat to Mr. Ottavi, Consul of France, dated the 27th Jemadi I (25th October, 1897). (After compliments. ) VVE have to inform you that we have received your letter, dated the 11th October, containing a reply to a letter sent by us on the subject of the Samamce, who is an inhabitant of our town of Siir, and who and whose forefathers were born in it. In the letter which we sent you before it, bearing date the 25th Dhil Hijjah, 1314 (A. H. ), we have shown all the necessary rules current among the States in mutual friendly relations. We hope you will send it to the great French Government, which in our estimation is too great to interfere with the local subjects (bodies), and which we hold to be aloof from it, owing to previous agreement (concord) between it and our forefathers. There is no doubt that every one must return to his original nationality, as is plainly stated in that letter, and no regard is due to silence for some...
