Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Search Fore Winter is a journey into one man s past. This book joins Carlos as he travels to and then explores his last three lifetimes on this planet. These events are triggered by a reoccurring nightmare the author experienced as a child. When Carlos tries to find out the meaning of his childhood dream he opens up a Pandora s Box that eventually will lead to his death and you have to hate when that happens to you! This event forces the author to explore his past and his attitude toward his life as well as his indifference toward our Great Spirit Father. The book then watches as Carlos begins his search for redemption and his possible return to the loving and merciful embrace of our Spirit Father, a father who had watched Carlos stumble in the dark tunnel that he had assumed was his life, a father who had heard his son curse his name as he fell over and over again in that tunnel and finally a Father who had waited and hoped for the day when Carlos would drop his bad attitude and realize that his Life and the trials and tribulations that had been brought upon him in his present lifetime was not his Father s fault but his own and caused by his prior actions in the lifetimes he had lived before his birth (this time around). How all this unfolds is the story contained in this book. Carlos self-assessment concerning his own shortcomings is brutally honest and threatening to all who read. We can all see ourselves in the words the author writes about himself and in the end, hopefully...
