LEMURIAN SHUNTS

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Pregnant Toni has a possession-like experience in which some matriarchal lemur spirit speaks of enigmatic development potentials and the loss of her island home. Witnessing increasingly bizarre events around the Timeline at Greenwich s old Royal Observatory, Toni encounters trampish Australian Doctor Boolawuy and a well-groomed English businessman the Englishman holding the freshly slaughtered body of Boolawuy s aye-aye companion, one of a disappearing lemur species. Two Afro-British orphans are caught up in the ensuing energy struggle, which escalates around the aye-aye s remains, the Observatory s Time Ball and a sound-making metamorphosing contraption. Abducting one of the children, the Englishman disappears into a howling vortex. As the others set about pursuit, a vision-plagued aye-aye embarks on a quest across the last canopies of Madagascar. Recounting horrors and a rescue endeavour that crosses continents and centuries, LEMURIAN SHUNTS is a reality-buckling odyssey. From London and a Madagascan rainforest in 2000, it shifts to 1666 to the throes of slave trading and piracy; cyclonic firestorms and brain experiments and living echoes of a lost equatorial continent. Disparate threads interweave in a wild and challenging story, resonant with deeper explorations of the worlds we know.

Human perception and human rights alongside issues relating to different species and environments are key themes. Surreptitiously geared towards drawing readers into questions of connectedness, of potential, of development , from the personal to the global, the...
