Congressional Sales Office, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)51030186 Subject: Consumer protection -- Law and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Legislation Should Provide Individuals with Notice. H. R. 4678 Does This. Web sites that collect personally identifiable information should provide individuals with clear and conspicuous notice of their information practices at the time of information collection. Individuals should be notified as to what type of information is collected about them, how the information will be used, and whether the information will be transferred to unrelated third parties. Because H. R. 4678 requires data collectors who sell customer PII to post notice at the time of data collection, consumers will know that the collectors practices may raise an issue of consumer privacy, and allows them to find out exactly what those practices are. Further, H. R. 4678 sets out the requirements for what the notice must contain, as well as allowing the FTC to issue guidelines and advisory opinions. Legislation Should Ensures...
