Kensett, December, 1872 As members of the Century Club, we have met with a severe loss by the death of our late fellow-member, John F. Kensett. He possessed, eminently, those qualities which form the bond of our Union; a passion for art, a love of letters, the culture of a gentleman, the refined taste of an amateur, and a warm, affectionate heart, which gently won the love of all who knew him. Into all the plans of the Club for the advancement of art, of literature and of social happiness, he entered with a zealous, self sacrificing spirit, and freely gave his time, his talents, and every aid in his power; and, more than all, he gave that cheery, hearty sympathy which kindled a flame in every other heart As an artist his rank was of the highest He had that rare assemblage of qualities which combine to make a great painter: an enthusiastic love of beauty, a marvellous eye for...
