Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Outline of the History of the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies 1879-1904 He had then already visited Greece more than once, and when I broached to him the idea of founding an English Hellenic Society he took it up with enthusiasm. During the next few months we met frequently in Oxford and in London, and gradually got the scheme into something like working order. We ultimately drew up a series of objects which the Society should set itself to carry out, and though these were modified later on, as other counsellors were called in, it may be of interest to put these first rough ideas on record. The objects were these: (1) To afford means of publishing copies and photographs of Greek inscriptions and monuments of all kinds. (2) To be a medium for the publication of Memoirs on all things Greek, both ancient and modern. (3) To promote the study of the ancient and modern Greek language and literature. (4) To be en rapport with the Archaeological Society of Athens, the Association pour l'encouragement des etudes Grecques en France, and other similar Societies throughout Europe and America. (5) To establish an agency at Athens through which members may obtain photographs of Greek sites and monuments, and all necessary guidance and information when travelling in Greece. Having drawn up this sufficiently comprehensive scheme the next question was to obtain supporters, and as it seemed likely to commend itself specially to those who had actually visited Greece we determined to make as complete a list as possible of such persons, and to approach them in the first instance. I still possess a...
