On the afternoon of the 4th. the weather being rough and squally, took mail from our fleet across the bay to the German cruiser Kaiserine Augusta, about to sail for Hongkong, together with communications from the flagship to British man-of-war Immortalite. August 7, coaled from British steamer Cyrus. Following day towed British steamer Nyanza, collier, from a rough berth into a quiet anchorage near Cavite. On August 9 commanding officers of the fleet were notified by Admiral Dewey that the bombardment of Manila would take place on 10th instant, at noon. Upon receipt of this information prepared ship for action, unshipping ladders and awning stanchions and sending them out of the vessel, together with all paints and oils; shipped spare tiller and rove off relieving tackles, broke out sail locker and built barricades on topgallant forecastle with sails and awnings, secured...
